Russell C. Potter

Funeral services for Russell Clayton Potter, 58, of 3147 West Olive Avenue Fresno, Calif, a heavy duty mechanic at the Pine Flat Dam, were conducted in the Stephens & Bean Memorial Chapel.

He died Saturday, Aug. 21, 1954, in a hospital in that city, where he was a patient for nine days.

Potter was born in Groton, S. D., and lived in Fresno for four years. He came to California seven years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Florene Potter of Fresno; a brother, George W. Potter of Groton, and a sister, Mrs. Eva Fenton of Minneapolis, Minn.

The remains were taken to Glenwood, Iowa, where burial services were held, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Potter and daughter, Mrs. Herbert Hornaman, left Thursday to attend the services, returning home Monday evening.
